MEDICINAL. ACROSS COUNTRY.

The signs of the times point to an enormous increase of intelligent public interest in health: to a new generation with purer, stronger blood and therefore more active, braver brains and body.

No physically robust, healthy person ever succumbed to grip, consumption, malaria or any other germ disease. But with a weakened system we all have to fight the germs of disease. Our blood is often in a fertile condition for the growth of bacteria—the germs of disease—because our stomach is disordered or our liver is torpid—in either case our blood does not get the proper nourishment. A torpid liver means stagnation of the blood and an accumulation of poisons which furnishes a weak spot for bacteria to enter.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many may see but it takes genius to realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was. Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery. Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandruff, Falling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair. Newbro's Herpicide destroys this germ and consequently restores the hair to its natural state.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Canonized By Pius X.

In the presence of 60,000 persons assembled in St. Peter's, in Rome, yesterday morning, Pope Pius X canonized Blessed Alessandro Sauli and Blessed Gerardo Maiella, descendants of whom, including Marquises Ambrosio, Sauli and Negrotto, assisted in the canonizations.

The ceremony is so rare in recent times that this is only the second one held since 1870.

The Basilica was beautiful with electric lights, its immense height showing the illuminations to perfection. The throne had been erected behind the high altar and chair of St. Peter, having a device of rays of gold with a picture of the Trinity in the center. Altogether the throne took up a space 90 by 70 feet. Four banners hung under the dome, showing the chief miracles of the new saints.

The papal procession met in the Sistina Chapel, entering the Basilica by the Chapel of the Holy Sacrament. The Pope, in full pontifical costume, was carried in the Sedia Gestatoria, with its historic fans. His handsome figure and head showed thus to best advantage. When he entered the church it was impossible for the authorities to repress entirely an outburst of loyalty from the multitude, which cried, "Long live Pope Pius!"

The scene was such as to evoke the devotion of the beholder, everything having been done to heighten the effect and the central figure in the ceremonial presenting a picture never to be forgotten. He was preceded, surrounded and followed by guards of the court and high prelates. The Pontiff looked less robust than a year ago, as if the triple crown were bearing heavily upon him. Cardinals, archbishops and bishops formed a square about him as he was escorted to the throne.

The ceremony that followed was interesting in the extreme. Pius X pontificated, preserving a calm, reverential air to the end, although, as he confessed later, he was greatly fatigued. After the ceremony the procession was formed again amid murmurs of love and loyalty.

All the American prelates now in Rome who assisted at the beatification on Thursday of the saints canonized yesterday were present, as was also the faculty of the American College at Rome.

How Horse Did Sums.

Dr. Carl Stumpf, professor of psychology at the University of Berlin, and two colleagues, Dr. C. von Hornbostel and Dr. O. Pfungst, have ended months of experiments with von Osten's horse Hans. They find that the secret of the animal's replies in his powers of observation, which enable him to perceive why he looks at the questioner the instant he has reached a correct answer. Thus they found the horse was able to tap out a correct answer to a question when the person putting it did not know the answer, for example, "How many persons are in the group behind me?" the questioner not looking himself did not know the number and Hans was able to give a correct reply, nor was he unable when wearing blinders to calculate or perform the simplest count. Stumpf did not doubt the good faith of von Osten, but he concluded that the horse's long training has taught him to detect the slightest changes in the bearing of his questioner as he reached the right number of hoof beats in spelling or in using the counting apparatus. This sharpness of observation in itself is most remarkable, as the horse notes movements or changes in expedition invisible to others and of which the questioner is unconscious.

"Devil" in Kilts.

"Sorto," or "the devil," was the name conferred by the natives of Terra del Fuego upon John Farquhar Macrae, who has just returned to Great Britain after an absence of twenty-two years in South America.

Mr. Macrae, who left his native town of Kintail, Scotland, a poor youth, is now an immensely rich man. On his arrival at Liverpool he was attired in kilts, and one of his companions played the piper as he walked up the ship's gangway.

He was the first British squatter in Terra del Fuego. He earned his name by his untiring witchfulness.

The dwarf like Yagham tried to steal his cattle, and for years never allowed him to sleep soundly. He only dared to doze for a few hours in the daytime.

Once he was surprised and attacked by a band of 200 Yagham, but galloped off, shooting down the foremost savages with unerring aim. At last the natives gave up annoying him, regarding him as almost a supernatural being.

Beware of Counterfeits.

"DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve," writes J. L. Tucker, of Centre, Ala. "I have used it in my family for Piles, Cuts and Burns for years and can recommend it as the best Salve on the market. Every family should keep it, as it is an invaluable household remedy, and should always be kept on hand for immediate use." Mrs. Samuel Gage, of North Bush, N. Y., says: "I had a fever sore on my ankle for twelve years, that the doctors could not cure. All salves and blood remedies proved worthless. I could not walk for two years. Finally I was persuaded to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which has completely cured me. It is a wonderful salve, and I can recommend it to all who are without leaving a scar. Sold by all druggists."

Driven to Desperation.

Living at an out of the way place, remote from civilization, a family is often driven to desperation in case of accident, resulting in Burns, Cuts, Wounds, Ulcers, etc. Lay in a supply of Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's the best on earth. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

RECTOR OF ST. LUKE'S.

Ashburnham, Ontario, Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Ashburnham, Ont., April 18, 1903.—I think it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your Cough Remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle, and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter Day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your Cough Remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a Godsend remedy. Respectfully yours,

E. A. LANGFELDT, M. A., Rector of St. Luke's Church.
